ivor a stevens was an uncommon human being and an even more uncommon politician he was born on st kitts but grew up in the sister island of nevis he later served in the canadian military during world war 11 upon his return to st kitts nevis in the late 1940s stevens soon found himself in the center of a developing political confl ict between the two islands in time he settled on nevis and took that island s side eventually stevens became embroiled in a political love hate relationships with two nevisians eugene walwyn and simeon daniel each of the three men was destined to leave his mark on the island's politics and history. Walwyn was soon labeled a traitor to Nevis later despite the fact that Stevens and Daniel worked together in the same political party for many years. The two men came to mistrust the vision and intent of each other's politics. The Caribbean does have a long history of authoritarian and forever leadership. However, Stevens was careful to focus on empowering younger Nevisians to become future leaders and politicians. He was interested in preserving the environment and the island's traditional culture. Often Mr. Stevens stood in defense of the common citizens' rights against wealthy elites. He also played a critical role in encouraging a less combative relationship between the people of St. Kitts and Nevis. This is his story.
