private land claims 1891 1904 the collection consists of civil land records of the spanish period governments of new mexico and materials created by the surveyor general and court of private land claims during the process of adjudication it includes the original spanish colonial petitions for land grants land conveyances wills mine registers records books journals dockets reports minutes letters and a variety of other legal documents each of these documents tell a story sometimes many stories the bulk of the records accentuate the amazingly dynamic nature of land grant and settlement policies while the documents reveal the broad sweep of community settlement and its reverse effect hundreds of last wills and testaments are included in these records that are scripted in the most eloquent and spiritual tone at the passing of individuals into death these testaments also reveal a legacy of what colonists owned and bequeathed to the next generations most of the documents are about the geographic political and cultural mapping of new mexico but many reflect the stories of that which is owned both in terms of commodities and human lives archives inevitably and these archives more than most help to shape current debates about dispossession the colonial past and the postcolonial future of new mexico for this reason the task of understanding the role of archives archival documents and the kinds of stories that emanate from them has never been more urgent let this effort and the key provided by twitchell in his two volumes open the doors wide for knowledge to be useful today and tomorrow from the foreword by estevan rael galvez new mexico state historian
