this volume addresses and problematizes the formation and transformation of the ancient near eastern art historical and archaeological canon the canon is defined as an established list of objects monuments buildings and sites that are considered to be most representative of the ancient near east in testing this canon this project takes stock of the current canon its origins endurance and prospects boundaries and typologies are examined technologies of canon production are investigated and heritage perspectives on contemporary culture offer a key to the future testing the canon of ancient near eastern art and archaeology invites readers to reconsider the contents and agendas of the art historical and world culture canons by looking at one of their most historically enduring components the art and archaeology of the ancient near east ann shafer amy rebecca gansell and other top researchers in the field examine and critique the formation and historical transformation of the ancient near eastern canon of art architecture and material culture contributors flesh out the current boundaries of regional and typological sub canons analyze the technologies of canon production such as museum practices and classroom pedagogies and voice first hand heritage perspectives each chapter thereby critically engages with the historiography behind our approach to the near east and proposes alternative constructs collectively the essays confront and critique the ancient near eastern canon s present configuration and re imagine its future role in the canon of world art as a whole this expansive collection of essays covers the near east s many regions eras and types of visual and archaeological materials offering specific and actionable proposals for its study testing the canon of ancient near eastern art and archaeology stands as a vital benchmark and offers a collective path forward for the study and appreciation of near eastern cultural heritage this book acts as a model for similar inquiries across global art historical and archaeological fields and disciplines a reconstruction of the missing history of contemporary art art networks and art conditions in eastern europe from the east european perspective the artistic map of europe contains different degrees of detail and resolution italy france and spain are presented in fine grain but the balkan peninsula is little more than a vague outline england germany and scandinavia have many features filled in but to the east of germany things are blurred until recently cities like sofia odessa skopje and belgrade had next to no definition further to the east moscow comes into focus but this is no compensation for the baltics sentenced for the last half century to blank space in the west virtually every move of the artist the art market and the art public is documented but in eastern europe no such system of documentation or communication exists instead we encounter systems that are not only inaccessible to the west but incongruous from one country to the next beside the official art histories there is often a whole series of stories and legends about unofficial unapproved art and artists east art map contemporary art and eastern europe is an ambitious attempt to reconstruct the missing histories of contemporary art in eastern europe from an east european and artistic perspective it is perhaps the widest ranging art documentation project ever undertaken by the east on the east involving a large network of artists scholars curators and critics coordinated by the irwin group over several years the editors invited eminent art critics curators and artists to present up to ten crucial art projects produced in their respective countries over the past 50 years the choice of the particular artworks many of them reproduced in color artists and events as well as their presentation was left exclusively to the individual selectors in addition the editors asked experts from both east and west to provide longer texts offering cross cultural perspectives on the art of both regions afterall books are distributed by the mit press
