this book focuses on the myriad ways that people collectively remember or forget shared pasts through popular dance in dance classes nightclubs family celebrations tourist performances on television film music video and the internet cultural memories are shared and transformed by dancing bodies adapting yesterday's steps to today's concerns the book gathers emerging and seasoned scholarly voices from a wide range of geographical and disciplinary perspectives to discuss cultural remembering and forgetting in diverse popular dance contexts the contributors ask how are afro diasporic memories invoked in popular dance classes how are popular dance genealogies manipulated and reclaimed what is at stake for the nation in the nationalizing of folk and popular dances and how does mediated dancing transmit memory as feelings or affects the book reveals popular dance to be vital to cultural processes of remembering and forgetting allowing participants to pivot between alternative pasts presents and futures the sanctification of stardom contemporary icons are drawn from popular culture musicians artists actors and other personalities we hear on radio or see on television on screen in print and in cyberspace today's gods are media personalities and cults surround stars and artists like Frida Kahlo Carlos Gardel Eva Perón and Selena because of transnational and global trends in importing and exporting cultural products the paintings music and politics that these figures crafted accrue symbolic meaning in multiple formats by viewing them through the lens of performance art we can begin to see how their polyvalent personas were first molded and perfected for the public through paintings tangos politics and tejano music once they fashioned their own complex images these multi-layered icons continued to travel after death over international boundaries gendered divisions political borders and language barriers their reincarnation on stage has allowed dramatists to affix and generate new associations thus converting them into secular saints for contemporary audiences Sarah M.
