osric my hair is falling out and no one reads my poems oswald my liver is bad and everyone reads my ads in this opening dialogue between osric a poet and oswald a copywriter nemerov exhibits qualities that remain constant through these 26 new and selected essays the ability to find the perfect wry phrase to show that the world is not quite as it should be and the courage to attack with wit and humor subjects that in others elicit a savage solemnity none of this is to say however that nemerov is frivolous as are all the great writers and critics he is a deeply serious if nimble wit who confronts the basic issues of art in life death morality thus in the swaying form a problem in poetry he can say so the work of art is religious in nature not because it beautifies an ugly world or pretends that a naughty world is a nice one for these things especially art does not do but because it shows of its own nature that things drawn within the sacred circle of its forms are transfigured illuminated by an inward radiance which amounts to goodness because it amounts to being itself
