r s thomas 1913 2000 is the most recognizable literary figure in twentieth century wales his controversial politics and public personality made him a cultural icon during his life and the merits of his poetry have continued to be debated in the years after his death yet these debates have too often circled familiar ground returning to the assumed personality of the poet or to the received narrative of his experience even the best studies have focused almost exclusively on ideas and themes as a result the poetry itself has frequently been marginalized this book argues that thomas s reputation must be grounded in poetry not personality unlike traditional literary biography which combines historical facts with the conventions of narrative in an attempt to understand the life of a literary figure this stylistic biography focuses on the essential relationship between the maker and the made object giving priority to the latter r s thomas began his career by writing sugary derivative lyrics inspired by palgrave s golden treasury yet he ended it as a form seeking experimentalist this study guides the reader through that journey tracing thomas s stylistic evolution over six decades in so doing it asserts a priority not to look at poetry as many have as a way of affirming existing notions about an iconic r s thomas but to come to terms with the tensions within him as they reveal themselves in the tensions rhythmic linguistic structural of the poetry itself

r s thomas s presentation of god has given rise to controversy and dissent exploring thomas s techniques of creating his images of god elaine shepherd addresses the problems surrounding the language of religion and of religious poetry refusing to limit herself to conventionally religious poems and drawing on material from the earliest work to counterpoint and beyond she identifies the challenges with which thomas confronts his readers the sequence of close readings engages the reader in an exploration of language and image from the image of woman as constructed by the impressionist to the non image of the mystical theologian
