this is the very personal story of how and why i became an educator it tells of how my early life influences preordained my decision to forego a more financially rewarding career and become what many people advised me to be it s the story of the struggles and sacrifices that all teachers make but most importantly it s the affirmation of how rewarding and fulfilling a career in education can be the book summarizes my career in the field of education and gives an explanation of my ideas of what i feel makes good schools and good teachers an account of eighteenth century global commerce as seen through the lives of three scottish traders written with verve and filled with arresting details tonio andrade author of the gunpowder age this book delves into the lives of three scottish private traders george smith of bombay george smith of canton and george smith of madras and uses them as lenses through which to explore the inner workings of britain s imperial expansion and global network of trade revealing how an unstable credit system and a financial crisis ultimately led to greater british intervention in india and china this book is a history of british seafaring and imperialism written largely from a micro level perspective placing the focus on individual traders rather than the east india company as a whole but it is not only an imperial history it also unravels the interwoven financial political and social relations between britain china and india in the eighteenth century hanser has consulted an impressively wide range of archival sources in different languages and located in various countries from private letters to periodicals and from official chinese documents to east india company reports her work contributes to our understanding of 18th century british imperial history reviews in history
