this book aims to portray migratory experiences documented in the form of biographical narratives we are interested in the dynamic aspect of migration which effectively becomes a complex trajectory made up of stages returns and circulations and no longer simply as in the industrial era a bipolar exile there and here in these complex and dynamic movements many trajectories become bifurcations by which we mean shifting fates in these stories we found paths events and bifurcations all combined together in terms of biographical construction based on accumulated experiences these narratives are both very banal and very unusual journeys portraying a new international human globalization they are simultaneously stories of barriers to be crossed in chaotic situations interspersed with peaceful events in quiet contexts these journeys reveal not only the weight of migration policies but also the certification policies implemented and developed by various countries this book presents itineraries social logics of mobility the routes become the analysts if statistics record regularities the personal approach captures specificities that produce meaning and contribute to a reinterpretation of current forms of mobility the superb collection of ethnographies that the reader will find in the pages to follow provide yet further insight into the ways in which movement across state borders represents a creative accomplishment with cases selected from around the world the middle east north africa latin america north america and europe the chapter in this book demonstrate that migration is undertaken not only against states and their bureaucracies but in tension with and possibly in opposition to migrants closest associates precisely the people whom social capital theory paints as the font of the resources that make migration possible roger waldinger university of california los angeles usa contents foreword roger waldinger introduction víctor zúñiga kamel doraï delphine mercier and michel peraldi part one migrant families and their re configuration chinese migrant women creating meaningful lives despite vulnerable statuses hélène le bail conflict and migration from iraq building a life in exile amid the twists and turns of a dramatic history cyril roussel from family dispersion to asylum seeking palestinian refugees in lebanon and syria kamel doraï part two children s movements across borders a left behind child from el alto protection strategies and redefinition of kinship ties for the children of migrant women in bolivia robin cavagnoud journey to the ordinary integration of an undocumented moroccan migrant in france mustapha el miri children circulating between the united states and mexico víctor zúñiga and betsabé román gonzález part three from adventure to waiting emancipation of restricted trajectories life while waiting experiencing the asylum application in france carolina kobelinsky a family resemblance migration work and loyalty Frédéric Décosse suzana s choices working in the maquiladoras migrating to survive and living transnationally delphine mercier part four from expatriate to migrant from expats to migrants mano s worlds in marrakesh michel peraldi the aeronautical engineer in flight turbulence and the capacity for agency across borders alfredo hualde being a doctor over here or over there collective action the foundation of the capacity for agency in the migratory process ariel mendez conclusion uncertainty anticipated deborah a boehm tout phénomène social se déroule dans le temps les sciences sociales pourtant n ont pas beaucoup mobilisé ni explicité la notion de processus qui permet de rendre compte de cette dynamique temporelle l analyse processuelle est indispensable pour interpréter des phénomènes qui s inscrivent dans la durée qui évoluent qui connaissent des événements ou des crises qui intègrent des mutations à des échelles diverses cet ouvrage propose une théorie alliée à une méthode d analyse des processus biographiques et organisationnels il développe un système original reposant sur quatre concepts clés les ingrédients issus du contexte les séquences les moteurs et les bifurcations chacun de ces concepts est expliqué et discuté puis illustré par des travaux empiriques montrant que ce système d analyse est susceptible de s appliquer à des types de processus très divers l explicitation finale de la méthode vise à aider le lecteur à opérationnaliser cette démarche dans ses propres travaux
