according to prof alexander dugin vladimir putin stands at a crossroads throughout his career as the president of russia putin has attempted to balance two opposing sides of his political nature one side is a liberal democrat who seeks to adopt western style reforms in russia and maintain good relations with the united states and europe and the other is a russian patriot who wishes to preserve russia s traditions and reassert her role as one of the great powers of the world according to dugin this balancing act cannot go on if putin wishes to enjoy continuing popular support among the russian people putin must act to preserve russia's unique identity and sovereignty in the face of increasing challenges both from russian liberals at home and from foreign powers russia is no longer strong enough to stand on her own he writes in order to do this russia must cooperate with other dissenting powers who oppose the new globalist order of liberalism to bring about a multipolar world in which no single nation wields supreme power but rather several major powers keep each other in balance russia is crucial to this effort in dugin's view and indeed its own survival as a unique and independent civilisation is dependent on a geopolitical shift away from the unipolar world represented by america's unchecked supremacy this fascinating book written by an informal advisor to putin and a kremlin insider is the first of its kind in english get inside the mind of putin and discover what makes this ruthless brutal and amoral dictator tick following the celebrations of the millennium and our entry into the 21st century it was to be hoped that the days when a brutal dictator could bring mindless death and destruction to another country and even to his own people were over and that the lessons of the past had been well and truly learned a forlorn hope as it transpires for yet another monster has raised its ugly head above the slimy cesspit which such monsters inhabit one to rival those of the past such as stalin hitler and pol pot for now we have vladimir putin a depraved deranged warmongering megalomaniac who threatens the peace of the entire planet in former times the appropriate description of putin would have been evil a monster the devil incarnate ghoulish an excrescence etc but we no longer live in the middle ages and such appellations no longer suffice and anyway what adjective exists to describe a person who has no respect for human life in their place we have the terminology of modern day psychiatry so is it possible to get inside the mind of putin and discover what makes this ruthless brutal and amoral dictator tick the answer is yes but it is not to be found in any textbook of psychiatry instead the clues are to be found in a scientific paper published by a female psychiatrist as long ago as the year 1997 and in the known side effects of the illness from which he is currently suffering a new and unique insight is now offered into the mind of putin one which has not previously been advanced
