one of only two novels i've ever loved whose main characters are not human barbara kingsolver for fans of the Essex Serpent and The Mermaid and Mrs Hancock by far my favourite book of the year guardian richly nuanced and beautiful an immersive and magical tale of loneliness love and finding hope buzzfeed a layered novel of many complex characters to keep their worlds safe chava and ahmad must access both their greatest supernatural powers and their deepest human impulses historical novels review in this enthralling historical epic set in New York City and the Middle East in the years leading to World War I the long awaited follow up to the acclaimed New York Times bestseller The Golem and the Jinni Helene Wecker revisits her beloved characters Chava and Ahmad as they confront unexpected new challenges in a rapidly changing human world Chava is a golem a woman made of clay who can hear the thoughts and longings of those around her and feels compelled by her nature to help them Ahmad is a jinni a restless creature of fire once free to roam the desert but now imprisoned in the shape of a man fearing they'll be exposed as monsters these magical beings hide their true selves and try to pass as human just two more immigrants in the bustling world of 1900s Manhattan brought together under calamitous circumstances their lives are now entwined but they're not yet certain of what they mean to each other both Chava and Ahmad have changed the lives of the people around them Park Avenue heiress Sophia Winston whose brief encounter with Ahmad left her with a strange illness that makes her shiver with cold travels to the Middle East to seek a cure there she meets Dima a tempestuous female jinni who's been banished from her tribe back in New York in a tenement on the Lower East Side a little girl named Kreindel helps her Rabbi father build a golem they name Yossele not knowing that she's about to be sent to an orphanage uptown where the hulking Yossele will become her only friend and protector spanning the tumultuous years from the turn of the twentieth century to the beginning of World War I the Hidden Palace follows these lives and others as they collide and interleave can Chava and Ahmad find their places in the human world while remaining true to each other or will their opposing natures and desires eventually tear them apart especially once they encounter thrillingly other beings like themselves

Chava a golem brought to life by a disgraced Rabbi and Ahmad a jinni made of fire form an unlikely friendship on the streets of New York until a fateful choice changes everything

an intoxicating fusion of fantasy and historical fiction wecker s storytelling skills dazzle entertainment weekly a marvelous and absorbing debut novel about a chance meeting between two supernatural creatures in turn of the century immigrant new york chava is a golem a creature made of clay by a disgraced rabbi knowledgeable in the ways of dark kabbalistic magic she serves as the wife to a polish merchant who dies at sea on the voyage to america as the ship arrives in new york in 1899 chava is unmoored and adrift until a rabbi on the lower east side recognizes her for the creature she is and takes her in ahmad is a jinni a being of fire born in the ancient syrian desert and trapped centuries ago in an old copper flask by a bedouin wizard released by a syrian tinsmith in a manhattan shop ahmad appears in human form but is still not free an iron band around his wrist binds him to the wizard and to the physical world chava and ahmad meet accidentally and become friends and soul mates despite their opposing natures but when the golem s violent nature overtakes her one evening their bond is challenged an even more powerful threat will emerge however and bring chava and ahmad together again challenging their very existence and forcing them to make a fateful choice compulsively readable the golem and the jinni weaves strands of yiddish and middle eastern literature historical fiction and magical fable in a wondrously inventive tale that is mesmerizing and unforgettable

i have written many books and articles on various topics but since 2013 i have devoted myself fully in writing the interpretation of the holy quran in english and with the grace of allah i have completed the whole quran on 29th october 2020 with 84 books i believe there is a great need in the whole world for the correct interpretation of the holy quran to be written in english currently there is a great misunderstanding about islam among muslims and non muslims globally the misunderstanding of the meaning of the holy quran among muslims will lead to the wrong practice of islam which leads to the wrong actions of muslims the wrong actions of muslims will lead to misunderstandings about islam among muslims and non muslims the wrong actions of the muslims have led to many miseries and wars among muslims the wrong actions of muslims have also led to many wars and clashes between muslims and non muslims in order to avoid miseries wars and clashes from taking place between the whole mankind in the whole world the whole mankind in the whole world need to understand the true teaching of islam there is no other way for the whole mankind to understand the true teaching of islam unless the whole mankind is able to read and understand the correct interpretation of the holy quran the whole mankind is only able to read and understand the correct interpretation of the holy quran when it is written in the universal language of the world english for this very reason i have written the interpretation of the holy quran in english prof nasoha bin saabin according to the qur an god created two parallel species man and the jinn the former from clay and the latter from fire beliefs regarding the jinn are deeply integrated into muslim culture and religion and have a constant presence in legends myths poetry and literature in islam arabs and the intelligent world of the jinn amira el zein explores the integral role these mythological figures play revealing that the concept of jinn is fundamental to understanding muslim culture and tradition pursued by a powerful jinn master and a mysterious sect of occultists fada sets out across the lush and unforgiving ancient arabian peninsula on a quest to rescue his son legend has it that the sacrifice of a calamitous child a child born under the serpent neck star can bring about the end of the world born under the serpent neck star himself jinn master behas has sought out and killed many calamitous children to avert the destruction they portend his next target is a boy named dileel the newborn son of a date farmer outside the great city of erum however his plans are foisted when an occultist apprentice interferes to save the boy and in the resulting confusion dileel is abducted by an unknown force determined to rescue his son the humble date farmer fada must leave behind everything he knows enlisting powerful allies and risking his life on an unforgettable journey critical attention to the victorian supernatural has flourished over the last twenty five years whether it is spiritualism or theosophy mesmerism or the occult the dozens of book length studies and hundreds of articles that have appeared recently reflect the avid scholarly discussion of victorian mystical practices designed both for those new to the field and for experts this volume is organized into sections covering the relationship between victorian spiritualism and science the occult and politics and the culture of mystical practices the ashgate research companion to nineteenth century spiritualism and the occult brings together some of the most prominent scholars working in the field to introduce current approaches to the study of nineteenth century mysticism and to define new areas for research modern society faces two problems the development of acceptable methods for the introduction of new and powerful tools and the need for a trustworthy universally applicable ethical system part of the problem may be attributed to the lack of a reliable system of ethics that can be brought to bear on the issues of new biotechnology information te
