a compilation of talks and articles on evangelization by a distinguished theologian this provocative meditation on the turn of the millennium explores the significance that a celebration of christ s birth can have beyond the christian community writing from the perspective of christian philosophy david walsh ponders the emergence of modern civilization from the medieval christian past concluding that christian theology grounds the dominant ideas of modern society he professes the importance and promise of christianity while rejecting the gnosticism advocated by harold bloom and others that places the divine within the self affirming christ s place at the heart of civilization walsh argues that the christian faith has relevance beyond its own boundaries for all traditions that find their common ground in reason this contemplative book asserts that the christian millennial jubilee has meaning for all and that it points the way toward the fullness of life in this world as well as in eternity christians with questions concerning the timing of christ s return find this volume most helpful a premillennial scholar marshalls strong biblical evidence against

this work is a series of sermons produced by emeritus professor hans mol and based on biblical texts the commentaries of john calvin on these texts and on calvin s institutes of the christian religion mol is australia s pre eminent scholar in the sociology of religion particularly in australia his 1971 volume religion in australia was the first attempt at statistical analysis of religion in australia which was also internationally significant parallel to mol s interest in the sociology of religion has been his interest in calvin indeed the theological basis of his life has been as a calvinist here in this volume he brings both of these interests together his sermons preached over the years in canberra seek to apply the teachings of calvin to a world view in which the scientific study of religion and indeed the wider study of sociology are of central significance in these sermons he succeeds considerably in this the volume is a substantial contribution to scholarship in that the combination of these two factors has only rarely been attempted thus the volume has originality and will have enduring value it is especially appropriate that it should be published at this time in preparation for the 500th anniversary of calvin s birth 1509 2009 biblical christianity is challenged today by other religions such as hinduism islam mormonism buddhism jehovahs witness scientology to name a few including atheists and agnostics who claim that jesus was simply a man a great teacher or guru or a prophet of god who worked his way to godhood are such claims supported by the evidence can we trust the bible to tell us the truth about jesus is jesus christ truly god can we find evidence of his deity in the old testament does the new testament affirm unequivocally that he is god are there reliable non christian sources that back such claims of deity this book aims at addressing these fundamental questions while providing solid internal and external evidence of the divinity of jesus christ in this age of plural spirituality thirst for truth and in need of an evidence based dialogue among various religions the book makes a compelling case for a closer scrutiny of prophecies contained in the bible at the beginning of the new millennium the christian churches are in a process of renewal the roman catholic church since vatican ii has been in a major stage of renewal contemporary globalization multi cultural interrelationships and inter religious dialogues have presented serious challenges to these renewal efforts in this volume i want to offer to the catholic renewal and from there to other denominational renewals a view of the church from the rich tradition of franciscan philosophy and theology to date there are only a few books which include small essays on this theme this volume presents an in depth franciscan approach to ecclesiology what is catholicism and where is the catholic church headed in the third millennium these two questions provide the structure for thomas rausch s catholicism in the third millennium here rausch combines a faithful presentation of the tradition with a critical theological reflection and interpretation of where the church is today and where it might be moving catholicism in the third millennium offers an appreciation of the forces and movements that have shaped and continue to influence the ongoing change and development of roman catholicism chief among these is the influence of the second vatican council 1962 1965 in reshaping catholicism this revised edition includes updated text from rausch s catholicism at the dawn of the third millennium particularly the final chapter on the unfinished agenda of vatican ii each chapter concludes with focus questions developed by catherine e clifford of st paul s university ottawa this experience of guided reading provides readers with a broad survey of roman catholic faith and practice in its contemporary context for readers who wish to compare particular passages of this volume with the catechism of the catholic church an outline is provided in an appendix with references to the appropriate sections of the catechism a second appendix offers a glossary of terms used in the book while a third appendix lists a number of basic works for further investigation of catholic faith and life chapters are the church and the council faith and the believing community a visible church a living tradition sacraments and christian initiation christian life and discipleship sin forgiveness and healing sexual morality and social justice prayer and spirituality the fullness of christian hope and the unfinished agenda includes appendix i outlook of book with references to the catechism of the catholic church appendix ii glossary of terms and appendix iii basic reference works on catholicism an index of names and an index of subjects are also included thomas p rausch sj phd is professor of theology at loyola marymount university in los angeles he is the author of catholicism at the dawn of the third millennium reconciling faith and reason and editor of the bestselling the college student s introduction to theology published by liturgical press catherine e clifford phd is a professor of theology at st paul s university in ottawa ontario

a reorganization of the gospels of matthew mark luke and john into the third millennium gospel of jesus christ this third millennium gospel of jesus christ is a consolidation of the gospels of matthew mark luke and john with the addition of a few verses from the unofficial gospel of phillip and the gospel of thomas with regards to mary magdalene matthew and luke both incorporate the gospel of mark i have eliminated the repetitions and when the same verses appear in matthew mark luke or john i have chosen one for my gospel matthew and luke also both copied verses from the gospel of q a gospel constructed based on the repetitions in luke and matthew and i have eliminated the repetition with these verses as well 30 of the unofficial gospel of thomas is repeated in the official gospels of matthew mark luke and john i have kept the chronological order from the annunciation of the birth of john the baptist to the sermon on the mount and from jesus entry into jerusalem on palm sunday to the resurrection i have grouped the miracles healings raising from the death exorcisms parables teachings and conflicts with the pharisees together in categories and have not tried to keep them in chronological order the purpose of this gospel is simple to make the story of jesus more readable more user friendly in this gospel you can read the story of jesus from beginning to end without starting and stopping with each traditional gospel and without the repetition i feel the awesome power of the miracles healings and teachings etc are more inspiring when read together if i have chosen luke s rendition of certain verses over matthew and so if you prefer matthew s rendition then substitute in matthew my goal is to increase the reading of the gospel of jesus christ i had a very special dream some time ago in it i was led to meet with the greatest benefactors of mankind for a kind of holy supper and there i was introduced to jesus and became a disciple of him gaining the privilege of traveling to his side throughout the world receiving some teachings and a promise that john s apocalypse could be revoked if mankind were divinized in my dream i received a mission from jesus and after that i began to see new possibilities for the human future adapting concepts that i had acquired up to the teachings of christ including my vision of the relationships of men with the economy and generation and distribution of wealth is there biblical evidence for a thousand year earthly kingdom the millennium ruled by christ before the fulfillment of the new heaven and new earth revelation chapter 20 seems to suggest so but few books of the bible are so difficult to interpret and a discussion of the millennium branches out into many other theological questions about the end times eschatology are these the last days what must happen before jesus returns what part does the church play this counterpoints volume compares three views of the millennium premillennial christ will come again before this kingdom is established postmillennial our present age represents that kingdom and that the church is and must move toward the fulfillment of this kingdom amillennial a future millennium is not a literal kingdom and when christ returns he will usher in an immediate new heaven and new earth robert b strimple kenneth l gentry jr and craig a blaising offer their perspectives giving their exegetical reasoning each of them then responds to the views held by their peers in a respectful and informative setting making it easy for you to compare their beliefs and gain a better understanding of how this aspect of christianity's great hope the return of jesus is understood by the church the counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion this book collects a series of talks of pope john paul ii on the priesthood this catechesis is inserted in a larger cycle dedicated to the church as of july 1991 this book contains pope john paul ii's expectations for the training of priests at the dawn of the year 2000 it should be a helpful reference for bishops priests seminarians and those working with future priests from back cover catechesis is a unique form of teaching that intends not merely to pass along facts but to hand on the faith received from christ the apostles and the living magisterium of the church the mystery we proclaim second edition is an invitation to all involved in this god ordained work to reflect and examine the importance of their ministry in light of the revealed mystery of faith we all profess reflecting both the spirit and the content of the catechism of the catholic church as well as the vision of the general directory for catechesis the mystery we proclaim second edition uses the riches of these resources to guide catechists into the third millennium with greater clarity confidence and effectiveness today is as monsignor kelly points out a promising and exciting time in which the new evangelization offers many rich possibilities for catechesis divided into five parts that analyze and evaluate the catechetical movement of the past as well as providing direction for the future the mystery we proclaim second edition helps consolidate and highlight themes of both the catechism and the general directory its five major sections are as follows catechesis in the new context the heritage and challenge of catechesis the goals of catechesis the content of catechesis and a methodology for catechesis everyone from pastors to deacons to religion teachers catechists and principals in fact anyone involved in religious education will find the mystery we proclaim second edition an encouragement to continued vigor and renewed enthusiasm for transmitting the living faith from one generation to the next

this book intends to show you that it is not the plan or the will of god for people he created to be unfruitful barren in any areas of their lives that includes pregnancy and childbirth no one shall suffer miscarriage or be barren in your land i will fulfil the number of your days exodus 23 26 in this book i have talked about my personal testimonies which includes my pain anxieties disappointments hope grief waiting joy fulfilment happiness and my bundles of joy my children from the throne of grace in this book i mentioned about relying on god through prayer dedication and meditation on the word of god as prayer is the key to unlocking your miracle one sure thing i like about the power of god is that it always produces a miracle you will be blessed by the testimonies of the modern day miracles of god which are included the perfect will of god remains forever for you to be fruitful you have to let your light so shine that men may see and glorify your father in heaven remember that god takes pleasure in you when you are fruitful the prayer points and suggestions are to make you more focused while the whole book is to build you up with the knowledge that god is able to do the miraculous in your life yours is the next testimony dedicated to pope john paul ii and his recent essay fides et ratio this book looks at y2k from the standpoint of catholic theology attempting to cut through the more vapid and hysterical manifestations of millenarianism walsh a scholar whose affiliations are not noted insists on christianity as the basis of western civilization especially its science and its concept of human rights
