was adapted from the 1962 short story by Tadeusz Borowski, a Polish survivor of Auschwitz. Borowski's autobiographical narrative offers a harrowing account of daily life in the extermination camp, emphasizing the dehumanization, moral compromise, and survival instincts that characterized the Holocaust experience. Rolf Hochhuth, a German playwright known for his provocative works, took on the challenge of translating Borowski's story into a visual and cinematic form. The film was produced in Czechoslovakia during a period of political tension, and its production was marked by a desire to confront uncomfortable t
