this should be essential reading for anyone involved in the training and professional development of early years practitioners it is an impressive analysis of the historical and contemporary big ideas that have influenced societies and practitioners views of children and the nature of the curriculum there are powerful sections on parents and communities i particularly liked the stimulating ideas galleries with their statements from researchers policy makers and practitioners around the world nursery world october 2004 this key textbook introduces students and practitioners to a wide range of different approaches to early childhood it provides practical strategies for developing and implementing early learning experiences that promote excellence and equity for children the book presents the latest research and thinking about good practice discusses how various philosophies and beliefs influence decisions in early childhood education and identifies the key thinkers behind each approach by examining different perspectives the book helps early childhood practitioners to navigate their way through competing views make informed choices and be critically reflective in their work in an accessible lively and user friendly way it explores issues such as what constitutes an appropriate early childhood curriculum how best to study and assess children involving parents and children in early childhood learning the book features a range of pedagogical devices to inspire early childhood workers to reflect critically on their work and the ideas underpinning it including boxed definitions of key terms ideas summary charts and ideas galleries clarification exercises case studies further reading lists this essential textbook is ideal for students undertaking early childhood qualifications at degree level masters courses in early childhood education and for practitioners who work with children from birth to eight in early childhood settings this book advocates for a new model of describing the practices of language revitalization and decolonizing the research methods used to study them the volume provides a comprehensive treatment of the theoretical and methodological foundations of working with communities revitalizing their languages it lays out the conceptual framework at the heart of the project and moves into a description of the model based on a seven year research process working with aboriginal communities in eastern australia six case studies show the model s application in language revival practice the book critically engages with the notion of revival languages as emergent and ever transforming and develops a holistic approach to their description that reflects aboriginal language practitioners understandings of the nature of language it seeks to demonstrate how the conceptual tools developed from this approach can support efforts to develop deeply collaborative research highlight the diversity of language revitalisation practice and map between the realms of old and new local and global and the social cultural and textual dimensions of language making this an ideal resource for researchers and scholars in sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology education cultural studies and post colonial studies arguably the finest regimental history even written a magnificent publication it is with its profusion of maps illustrations and photos each page of photos contains several the worcesters was one of the five regiments that had four regular battalions before the war with two special reserve and two territorial battalions by the end of the war another fourteen battalions had been raised for a total of twenty two of which twelve went on active service 9 460 officers and men gave their lives 71 battle honours were awarded and eight vcs one of whom attached to the rfc was the airman leefe robinson famous for shooting down a zeppelin battalions served on the western front in gallipoli macedonia mesopotamia italy one battalion ended the war in north persia appendices provide the roll of honour honours and awards including mention in despatches with date of gazette for companion of the british empire read commander details of badges colours and distinctions of the regiment and the music for regimental marches illustrations are by well known artists depicting battle scenes including each vc winning action apart from leefe s zeppelin after considering various factors explained in his very informative preface the author decided to present this history as one general story in which the number of the battalion concerned is printed in the margin of the pages dealing with its deeds attention is paid to minor actions such as trench raids which usually find no place in compressed official histories they are recorded in this history the plans illustrate the engagements recorded in the book and are designed to depict the part played by the several battalions in their battles and to enable the visitor to the battlefields to recognise the ground on which each fight took place as much as to make clear the general course of those actions the book opens with a very interesting account of the regiment in the years before the war beginning at the turn of the century and there is a very comprehensive index of 25 pages this is a great piece of work and must rank as one of the finest of the great war regimental histories many would say the finest and i wouldn t argue vols 1 26 include a supplement the university pulpit vols 1 26 no 1 661 which has separate pagination but is indexed in the main vol
