this book examines many facets of transcultural poetics in the english translation of chinese literature from 12 different expert contributors translating chinese literature into english is a special challenge there is a pressing need to overcome a slew of obstacles to the understanding and appreciation of chinese literary works by readers in the english speaking world hitherto only intermittent attempts have been made to theorize and explore the exact role of the translator as a cultural and aesthetic mediator informed by cross cultural knowledge awareness and sensitivity given the complexity of literary translation sophisticated poetics of translation in terms of literary value and aesthetic taste needs to be developed and elaborated more fully from a cross cultural perspective it is therefore necessary to examine attempts to reconcile the desire for authentic transmission of chinese culture with the need for cultural mediation and appropriation in terms of the production and reception of texts subject to the multiplicity of constraints in order to shed new light on the longstanding conundrum of Chinese English literary translation by addressing Chinese literature in the multiple contexts of nationalism cross cultural hybridity literary untranslatability the reception of translation and also world literature the book will be of great interest to students and scholars of translation studies Chinese literature and East Asian studies

Applying systemic functional linguistics (SFL) to descriptive translation studies (DTS) to three translations of a classic Chinese text Zhao proposes a new model for linking translator positioning with translational norms in the target culture Zhao combines the appraisal model from SFL with a characterisation model to describe the role of translator positioning in character construction looking at three different translations of the classic Chinese novel Luotuo Xiangzi she uses corpus tools to compare the opening and ending chapters of each translation identifying textual patterns of translator positioning she then analyses and compares the cover designs of the translated novels and reconstructs the translational norms governing the translator's positioning in characterisation in doing so she contributes to DTS by developing a systematic and consistent framework to analyse verbal and visual elements in translated novels her multimodal analysis also provides insights into the broader patterns of translated language an insightful read for scholars interested in both theoretical and empirical approaches to translation studies

By exhaustively analyzing Lao She's literary writings Vohra traces the development of his political consciousness and convictions answers are sought for crucial questions why did Lao She drift to a leftist position why did he return voluntarily to China why did he become disenchanted with the authoritarian regime and why did he commit suicide besides being an introduction to the life and works of Lao She this book contributes to a greater understanding of the nature of the social and political change in twentieth century China
