david a desilva sets a new standard for new testament introductions emphasizing the social and rhetorical contexts of the texts and their authors highlighting a variety of interpretive approaches to the new testament and considering implications of the new testament for ministry formation this workbook accompanies the new testament in its world by n t wright and michael f bird following the textbook s structure it offers assessment questions exercises and activities designed to support the students learning experience reinforcing the teaching in the textbook this workbook will not only help to enhance their understanding of the new testament books as historical literary and social phenomena located in the world of early christianity but also guide them to think like a first century believer while reading the text responsibly for today this non technical introduction to the new testament describes how the various christian writings were composed over a period of about a century it explains who the authors were when they wrote who they wrote for and why some early christian writings were canonized as holy scripture and others were not book jacket

the new testament sidenote its name after the gift of the holy spirit himself we may justly reckon the new testament as the most precious gift which our lord jesus christ has given since his ascension to those who believe on his name the word testament which is in latin testamentum corresponds with our word covenant and the phrase new testament signifies the record of that new covenant in which god bound man to himself by the death of his son the truth that this was a new covenant distinct from the covenant which god made with abraham was taught by our lord when he instituted the memorial of his death and said this cup is the new covenant in my blood we do not know precisely at what date the christians began to call this record the new testament but we do know that they used this name before a d 200 sidenote its language in the time of our lord the popular language of palestine was aramaic a language which was akin to hebrew and borrowed some words from hebrew hebrew was known by learned people but the language which the son of god learned from his blessed mother and his foster father was aramaic and he spoke the galilean dialect of that language from a few words preserved in the gospels it is plain that the gospel was first preached in that tongue in the 7th century after christ the mohammedan conquerors who spoke arabic began to supplant 2 aramaic by arabic and this is now the ordinary language of palestine as many people who spoke aramaic were at one time heathen both the jews and the christians adopted the habit of calling their language syriac rather than aramaic the great centre of christian syriac literature was edessa and in the eastern part of the roman empire syriac was the most important and most elegant language next to greek it is still used in the church services of many oriental christians and it is spoken in ordinary conversation in parts of north mesopotamia and kurdistan further west it is only spoken in a few villages of anti libanus in the course of this book it will be necessary to refer occasionally to the aramaic language it is highly probable that some of the earliest christian writings were in aramaic but all the books of the new testament which we now possess are in greek the greek language was known by many people in palestine and it was splendidly fitted to be the medium of god s revelation it was widely known among the civilized nations of the time and it is so rich and expressive that religious ideas are better conveyed in greek than in almost any other tongue whereas it was essential that the gospel should be preached first in aramaic it was equally essential that it should be written in greek for the benefit of people who did not live in palestine or who lived there as strangers sidenote the canon the new testament scriptures consist of twenty seven different books written by nine different authors each book has some special characteristics corresponding with the mind of the writer and the circumstances under which it was written in this volume georg strecker profiles the new testament with major treatments of paul jesus the synoptics john and the general letters strecker argues for a rich mosaic of theologies rather than one single new testament theology he adopts a redaction critical approach and thus highlights the background of and relationships among the new testament writings strecker s relentless pursuit of the distinctive views of each specific writing allows the complexity of the new testament to emerge this package includes the complete two volume set of the book of revelation from the macarthur new testament commentary series revelation 1 11 and revelation 12 22 the macarthur new testament commentary series continues to be one of today s top selling commentary series these commentaries from respected bible scholar and preacher john macarthur give a verse by verse analysis in context and provide points of application for passages illuminating the biblical text in practical and relevant ways revelation 1 3 says blessed is the one who reads the words of this prophecy and blessed are those who hear it and take to heart what is written in it because the time is near that blessing may be hard to receive with the book s shrouded prophecy and eschatological mysteries confusing scholar and lay reader alike macarthur pulls back the veil and reveals more of what god s word has to say to us in revelation covering volatile topics as the rapture the millennial kingdom and the anti christ
