this book shares with its readers relevant and biblical sermon outlines based on the life of the prophet jonah

a veteran pastor with thirty years of experience guides readers through a ten step process to preaching old testament narratives from text selection to delivery the first edition received a christianity today award of merit and a preaching magazine book of the year award this edition now updated and revised throughout for a new generation includes a new chapter on how to preach christ from the old testament and an exemplary sample sermon from mathewson foreword by haddon w robinson in this important book webb makes two central claims first that effective preaching without a manuscript is not a matter of talent as much as it is a matter of preparation preachers can learn the practices and disciplines that make it possible to deliver articulate thoughtfully crafted sermons not from a written page but as a natural spontaneous act of oral communication throughout the book the author offers specific examples including a transcript of a sermon preached without manuscript or notes second that the payoff of learning to preach without a manuscript is nothing less than sermons that more effectively and engagingly give witness to the good news worship formation provides a thoughtful perspective on christian worship and addresses how each element within a worship service spiritually forms the worshiper brooks challenges the reader toward an understanding that worshipping through music prayer scripture reading communion sermon stillness giving and baptism engages the worshiper in spiritual formation worship formation encourages the worshiper to not just go through the motions when they gather for worship but to realize that they are being formed through each element of worship and challenges those in leadership to be thoughtful in their approach to planning and leading worship services live listen tell the art of preaching will guide readers through the process of sermon preparation and hearing god through the scriptures by drawing on life and scripture especially the road to emmaus narrative in luke 24 the author illustrates that preachers are living a story listening to a story and telling a story this book encourages you to pay particular attention through prayer to the story to which you are listening geoff new shows how to prayerfully listen to the scriptures in preaching preparation and how the fruit of this leads to a sermon and impacts the way we live listen and tell this book shares with its readers relevant and biblical insights as it relates to the story of jonah that is his disobedience repentance and eventually obedience therewith bringing repentance to the city of nineveh
